

Travelling info:

You may reach Volos from Athens by:

1. Private car. The distance is 318km. You follow the national road towards Lamia and then towards Larissa. You leave the motorway either at Mikrothives junction or at Velestino junction.
2. KTEL bus. The buses leave from the station at Liossion street. There are 11 scheduled services per day.
3. OSE Intercity train (www.ose.gr). From Larisis Station, there is 1 direct service, plus 7 more via Larissa. Return tickets are discounted.
4. To go to the train station from Athens international airport, take the express bus to "Syntagma" (no. E95) or "Ethinki Amyna" (no.E94) and then the metro to "Stathmos Larisis". If you take the E94 you must change lines at the metro station of Syntagma. You should buy the 1-day ticket that covers the whole journey within Athens.

You may reach Volos from Thessaloniki by:

1. Private car. The distance is 218km. You follow the national road to Larissa and then towards Lamia. You leave the motorway at the Velestino junction.
2. KTEL bus (www.ktel.org). There are 8 scheduled services per day.
3. OSE Intercity train (www.ose.gr). There are 7 Intercity services daily to Larissa, from where you can catch one of the 12 local trains to Volos. Return tickets are discounted.
4. To go to the train station from the Thessaloniki airport take the bus no. 78 and get off at the "New Railway Station".